Being Obedient to God's Word
Walking Humbly With God
Bearing Fruit Unselfishly
Living in God's World

Thank You Notes

Linda Dinwiddie thanks Ray Perkins and Phillip Yarbrough for covering the Dacus Class while she was visiting her aunt in Mississippi three weeks ago and having a grandbaby two weeks ago in Texas.

The church thanks Mamie and Robert Hearn for again seeing the need and helping our church by cutting the shrubs on the church grounds. It's a big job many of us never think about until we see how nice it looks after our big-hearted friends, Mamie and Robert, do it for us.

We appreciate your hard and HOT work for us!

Crossroads Children and Youth Ministry "Where Jesus and my Life cross paths"

Each Wednesday beginning in September a new children and youth ministry will begin at Colonial. Children and Youth ages 5-18 are invited to come and enjoy dinner, worship and Bible study from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m. Volunteers are welcome to assist with this program, so if you would like to be part of this exciting new ministry experience please see Reverend Anderson.

Revitalizing the Local Church— A Class for Memphis Theological Seminary will meet at Colonial in the fellowship hall each Wednesday from 1:00-4:00 p.m. All members of the congregation are encouraged to attend and be part of this class that has in the past been a catalyst for important initiatives within our church such as our CORE group and the Summer Day Camp. The class will be taught by Dr. Barry Anderson.

Extreme Make-over at MTS—

Memphis Theological Seminary sent a letter to all local CP churches stating that they were hosting an Extreme Make-Over for student housing. The churches were asked to "adopt a room" and help to make a more inviting place for seminary students to live.

Our Wednesday morning prayer group accepted this challenge and raised enough money to provide a nice selection of items for the house we adopted. These items were taken to the seminary last week. Our group feels blessed because we were able to provide a few comforts of home for students who don't have the luxury of going to a comfortable home every night.

Update on Robert—

Robert Morgan Powers II is heading to Arizona to work full-time with the youth on a Navajo reservation.

Robert will have a place to live and a truck to drive on the reservation, but at this time there are no grants available to pay him for his work. He will have to furnish his own money for living expenses such as food and clothing. Unfortunately, he will be miles from a store or a post office and there will be no cellular support for phones or computers. At this time, Robert may be contacted through his parents, Brenda and Morgan, at 901-682-1079. Hopefully, after he gets to Arizona, he will be able to let us know of an address where he can be reached.

Rev. Dr. Jacques Foumane is returning home to Cameroon. Colonial members will miss him personally and also miss his unique perspective on life, having served for many years as a pastor in a poor African country. Discussions in the A. G. Mullins Seekers Sunday School Class benefited from his telling of his experiences as a pastor in Cameroon and his Biblical insights gained through extensive study.

Brief Meeting—

After church Sunday, there will be an opportunity for the congregation to be updated and to ask questions concerning air conditioning repair plans, finances, etc.
